

In this week's Post, Socialist Tyranny, a dark side of life and future is portrayed and becomes a day-to-day exercise in our Nation. There is hope for a future in the Word of God and the remnant of Christians who know the truth and are not captivated by fear and evil. Seek the truth and stand on principals of truth, honesty, ethics, and most of all Love by the Holy Spirit for each other and even for those that do not understand these characteristics of a Christian. I fail daily but I can ask forgiveness from my Lord and strive to overcome my weaknesses. The Church must rise up to teach truth and the principals of good versus evil as evidenced in today's society plus a message of hope in our future eternal life with Jesus in a New Heaven on a New Earth. Following is the scripture from 1 Corinthians Chapter 13:1-13 the Love Chapter of the Bible as a reminder of the Love that binds us to one another – nothing makes us whole but the Love of Jesus:

"If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. And if I give all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I deliver my body to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing. Love is patient, love is kind, and is not jealous; does not brag and is not arrogant, does not act unbecomingly; it does not seek its own, is not provoked, does not consider a wrong suffered, does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails; but if there are gifts of prophecy, they will be done away; if there are tongues, they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will be done away. For we know in part, and we prophecy in part; but when the perfect comes, the partial will be done away. When I was a child, I used to speak as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I did away with childish things. For now, we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I shall know fully just as I also have been fully known. But now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love".

Well, is it possible that we could see coming to America with our Constitution and Bill of Rights having no basis in a Nation that was founded on Christian conservative principals? We are divided so differently with those of us who follow God and His principles of truth and love while others thrive on fraud and lies marching in step with Satan and his evil forces. With the major news media screening truth from their reporting and our Washington DC leadership creating continuous dissensions within we-the-people, Satan is having a field-day at dividing the Nation. Believers know the outcome of this playbook as God always wins. We have to know that God often uses the wicked to gather His people into the battle for truth to overcome fear, lies, and evil. Joseph in the Bible sold into slavery as meant for evil became for-the-good as God used Joseph to save Israel. Many daily reports come through secondary news services that help us to understand the intentions of the evil that surrounds us. An example is the following article that describes now coming monthly vaccines and vaccines for variants, that are now appearing, and still while knowing that we are dealing with experimental vaccines. Is there any truth or continued creating fear of truth? We as Christian conservatives are being described as enemies of the State. The following article notes a strong response to some of the future intentions which is really on us now. Just this last week vaccine patrols have been loosed in North Carolina soliciting people in their homes, accompanied by nurses with vaccine kits to coerce people to be given the COVID19 vaccination. We have a right of choice in our Medical Privacy Rights.

Democrats plan to monitor your PRIVATE phone messages and “correct” vaccine “misinformation” sent to family and friends.

Each day, we seem to reach a horrifying new low in the Orwellian nightmare now gripping modern society. In the latest insanity involving covid and Big Brother, Politico.com reports that the Democratic National Committee plans to “engage fact-checkers” and “work with SMS carriers” (cell phone text messaging) to “dispel misinformation about vaccines” that people send to each other in private texts.

It would be horrifying enough if the federal government were announcing such a diabolical plan, but for an authoritarian, power-crazed political party to demand this power to read and modify all your cell phone texts in real time is straight-up tyranny, pure and simple. It is also blatantly illegal and unconstitutional, by the way. Spying on the private phone conversations of Americans can only be legally done with a court approved FISA warrant that specifically names the intended target (a person) and provides reasonable evidence of suspicion that this person poses a legitimate threat to national security.

Yet in typical covid-tyranny fashion, Democrats now believe any “public health emergency” gives them the right to violate every constitutional right, human right and civil right you might have previously believed existed. Such is the nature of the absolute medical tyranny under which we are now living... a kind of medical dictatorship where the most power-hungry political zealots now think they can abandon all limits on government power and just do anything they want. This situation will continue for as long as the sheeple submit to the tyranny. And by the way, if the Democrats assert the power to read and modify your private phone text messages, then what else might they try next?

- Reading and “correcting” all your emails.
- Opening all your postal mail and banning mail from “unapproved” sources, claiming those are “misinformation.”
- Placing mandatory audio monitoring devices in your private home and recording all your private conversations. When you say something, they do not like, an audio speaker in your home will announce the “fact check.”
- Outlawing all books that offer viewpoints which contradict official narratives about vaccines, covid, elections and politics.
- Cutting off electricity to the homes of people who hold “misinformation” views. After all, why should people be allowed to use electricity to spread “harmful information” across society, right?

You get the point. Once Democrats start down this road of total surveillance tyranny and “wrong think” corrections, it never ends without some sort of revolution or civil war. In addition to the private phone message nightmare mentioned above, we have now learned that a DHS-accredited training organization is offering a course called MGT 433 ISOLATION & QUARANTINE FOR RURAL COMMUNITIES. The course description refers to training local officials, “for situations requiring the isolation and quarantine (I&Q) of a large portion of a local, rural population.” This dovetails with the efforts of the Biden regime to target rural communities, claiming vaccination rates are too low and need to be increased there. No doubt the day is coming when Biden's goons will declare a public health emergency in low-vax rural counties and deploy armed government personnel to forcibly round up "anti-vaxxers" and incarcerate them in covid death camps run by FEMA. It is hard not to see this coming, given how openly they are advertising their intentions these days. All it is going to take is a government release of another engineered bioweapon — I am calling it the "Omega" variant — and they will spread mass panic to justify the forced medical kidnapping of rural Americans who refuse to get vaccinated or turn in their guns.
